(1) Checking kanji compounds you are not familiar with: <http://tangorin.com> (linked from the JOSHU “links” page).

Click “Multi-Radical Search”:

Choose “general”:

e.g., 嫉妬: separate both kanji, 嫉 and 妬 into small sections → 女, 疾, 石 → find and click 女, 疾, 石 → if you can't find 疾, then separate it into smaller sections: 疾 → 疒 and 矢.

You can click the parts of the kanji compound in any order until the kanji compound you are looking for is listed below the radical chart, so start with the ones you can easily identify.

(2) えい語 ↔ カタカナのチェックの仕方 (using Google, Yahoo, etc.)

1. When you want to know how to write the English word in Katakana

e.g.: Philadelphia

- First, type the word in katakana that you think it might be and search/google it, then see if there are any suggestions given. 「フェダレルフェア」? 「フィダレルフィア」? 「フィデルファ」?
- If you couldn't find the correct spelling of the word in katakana, then type a part of the word in katakana and the word in English. For example, デル and “Philadelphia.” If you still can't find the word, try other combinations.
- You can also add words related to “Philadelphia,” like イーグル、デル、Philadelphia, and アメリカ.
